FAYETTEVILLE, N.C.: The Greater Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce welcomes the new Chairman and Chamber Board of Directors for 2023.

Charles “Gary” Rogers of Beasley Media Group Inc. officially began his One-Year term as Chairman in January 2023.

“We are excited to have such notable professionals join our board,” said Chamber interim President & CEO, Toni Dixon. “Each of them offers a dynamic skill set and determination to see our community thrive through service. We look forward to their contributions.”

Gary Rogers, Local Sales Manager for the Beasley Media Group, has been active with the Greater Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce for over 8 years. During that time, he served as an ambassador, even achieving “Ambassador of the Year” twice, in 2016 and 2018. Gary also served as the Chair of the Ambassadors in 2017 and joined the Board of Directors that year. Gary was also the recipient of the Chairman’s Award in 2017 and has recently served as the Secretary of the Executive Board in 2021 and 2022. Not to mention, you have probably seen and heard Gary as our Emcee for several events. “I am very excited to continue to serve the Greater Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce, and all the incredible businesses that we represent. I hope to continue the long-standing legacy of growth, perseverance, and leadership this Chamber has promoted for over 100 years. We will continue to bridge the gap in partnerships and serve as the catalyst to making businesses successful in our community.”

In addition, we also welcome our new board officers, Chris Fletcher of Manna Church, Robert Hines of United Way (Former CEO), and Samantha Inczauskis of Methodist University.

“I am honored to serve as an officer on the board and look forward to engaging with our members and the greater Fayetteville community as we work together to help businesses and organizations thrive” states Ms. Inczauskis.

Through strong collaborations such as these, The Greater Fayetteville Chamber continues to serve as a catalyst in growing a healthy, connected business community. Our advocacy of business-friendly public policy, promotion of diverse business initiatives, and creation of opportunities to network continues to deliver valuable programs and services to our members.
